Come on kas1e thats a very poor excuse.

I need no excuses at all. No one pay me for that, i do all what i want and when i want. No one from you write me a mail with words "what kind of help you need" , "why prevent you to release it with that fix". But still, you write it here like i must to do anything for you, in my free time, when i want to do another things. I can only repeat: i need no excuses at all, i can just says "fuck off", and nothing changes for me :)
